Covid Update
Mrs. Suhr delivered an update on staffing and attendance during the latest wave of COVID. She is requesting the ability to close down a class or the school if necessary due to not being able to staff because of people being out for various reasons.

- Motion that Principal be given authority to reallocate staff using arena subbing, class combination, or any other on-prem means needed to maintain classes, leading up to class level, then grade level, and then school closing as needed. Adequate communication to be given to board and parents whenever possible before closings occur. – Michelle motioned
- Motion seconded - April Atkinson
- Motioned passed unanimously
